

FIVE FAST FACTS

01

Women in Sports on the Rise:

Since the passage of Title IX female participation in high school sports has grown by 1,057% and 614% at the collegiate level

Source: Women's Sports Foundation
"Women's Sports & Fitness Facts and Statistics"

02

Women as college students vs. college athletes:

"Women make up 54% of college students and 43% of those women are in collegiate athletics"

Source: National Coalition for Women and Girls in Education
"Title IX at 30 Report Card on Gender Equity" Report

03

Before Title IX vs. Now:

	High School	College
Then	7% of girls participated in sports	2% of women participated in sports
Now	41.5% of girls participated in sports	43% of women participated in sports

Source: National Coalition for Women and Girls in Education
"Title IX at 30 Report Card on Gender Equity" Report

04

Title IX makes an Olympic Impact:

The 2016 Rio Olympics marked the largest contingent of U.S. Female Olympians in history with a total of 294 women and 264 men

Source: www.teamusa.org

05

50 years later

3.5 million girls now participate in high school sports

Source: National Federation of State High School Associations
"Title IX Milestones: A Dramatic Rise"

Title IX was originally not Applied to Athletics!

Title IX was established in 1972 but it wasn't until the late 70's college athletics needed to comply with the law or risk losing federal funds